

ECOS GUIDELINES HOW TO WRITE AN EXPOSÉ

1. Start with a cover page that follows the example of the official University of Vienna MA Thesis Cover Page.
2. The exposé is not a research paper. It can be accomplished in as few as 5 pages.
3. The document must include:
 - a. Title of your thesis
 - b. Introduction, which includes one clearly stated research question and a discussion of the relevance of the topic and research question
 - c. Brief Literature Review
 - d. Overview of intended Analytical Framework
 - e. Bibliography (references cited and other source material consulted)

For writing term papers and master's theses, we strongly recommend Prof. Frank's Youtube Channel.

We also provide an EcoS Guideline on how to format your MA thesis.